Subd. In 1909 Col Smyth (then Senior Surgeon) represented that whenever criminal lunatics were sent to Asylum under the orders of Govt no information was furnished regarding their past history. He suggested that a medical certificate and a history sheet in the former prescribed in the case of non-criminal lunatics together with copies of charge sheet and order in the case might be ordered to be sent with such lunatics. This suggestion met with the approval of Govt. and orders were passed that where a case was reported for the orders of Govt under Sec 466 or 471 of the Cr. Pro. Code copies of these papers should be subd to Govt.

-28.7-

In this G.O. an error seems to have crept in. The History sheet is form C in the G.O. of Jan 08 and not form B as provided therein. Form B is about private lunatics.

f 2130-39 / Pris 8-05-28 — 07/161 08

In a recent case a Magistrate did not send the history sheet on the ground that form B was not one to be furnished by him although from a perusal of the whole G.O. it is not difficult to infer that what was required was form C.

If approved a G.O. correcting the mistake will be issued with a view to prevent such construction.
